

MENTOR CONFERENCING QUESTIONS

- a) What do you consider the most effecting teaching moment in your class today? Why?
- b) What was one of your successes as a teacher during the past week?
- c) What did you see as your teaching strengths? What are the best things you have to offer kids?
- d) How are you attempting to create a warm, friendly learning environment in you classroom? How are you forming a learning community?
- e) On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you rate this day? This week? Why?
- f) During what part of today did you feel that “real” teaching and learning was going on in your classroom?
- g) How do you know when students are learning?
- h) Which accomplishments as a teacher are you most proud of?
- i) What is your greatest concern at this time?
- j) What seems to be going well in your classroom management? What problems do you see?
- k) Have you made any changes in your teaching strategies recently? What new techniques have you tried?
- l) What factors make some of your lesson flow better than others?
- m) If you could get beyond the day-to-day planning, what areas would you likr to work on?
- n) What successes have you experienced in working with parents? How could you expand your interaction with them?
- o) Which aspects of teaching make you feel least comfortable?
- p) I’m eager to hear any questions you might have? What would you like to ask?