COMMITTEE SERVICE FAQ

This is meant as a general answer guide to the question, "Does [committee member name] need approval to serve on a student's committee? Questions about committee member approval status can be directed to gradcoll@uiowa.edu prior to submission of the exam request form.

How to Determine When to Seek Approval:

→ Is this person currently a tenure-track faculty member at lowa, or were they tenure track less than 1 year ago?*

IF YES

- You do not need to submit anything
- This person is automatically eligible for committee service
- This person counts as tenure-track toward the total required (see chart below)

IF NO

- You will need to submit a committee member approval request via workflow and include a current CV
- Depending on what type of appointment this person holds, they will be approved for different term types/abilities; full chart available here

*If this person was tenure-track faculty at lowa less than one year ago but now holds a non-tenure-track position at the UI, please email gradcoll@uiowa.edu for assistance.

	Doctoral	Nondoctoral
	4 members minimum	3 members minimum
Committee Make-Up	3 tenure-track, UI faculty members	• 2 tenure-track, UI faculty members
	2 tenure-track, UI faculty members in the student's field of study	<ul> <li>2 tenure-track, UI faculty members in the student's field of study</li> </ul>
	At least 1 chair must be tenure-track	At least 1 chair must be tenure-track
Remote Members	Remote/hybrid exams and committee members are currently permitted (ample notice will be provided if this changes)
Emeritus Faculty <sup>1</sup>	···
·
Comp Exam to Final Exam	If member had to seek approval to be on the comp exam, they must still follow the three-year renewal policy to serve on the final committee; they are not "grandfathered" in
	If a member was an active UI tenure-track faculty member on the comp exam, they do not need approval to serve on the final exam (program status is retained)
	<ul> <li>Departing faculty will lose tenured status for final exam committees, but emeritus faculty will retain their tenure status</li> </ul>

&lt;sup>1</sup> Faculty with FE job codes; see the Office of the Provost for information on FE status