This page offers the latest information on any procedural changes due to COVID-19.

Library Guide for Education <https://guides.lib.uiowa.edu/education>

Instructional Services <https://www.lib.uiowa.edu/instruction/>

Course-aligned library instruction is available virtually and in person and helps students address needs for specific assignments and build information literacy skills. We can talk about assignments and activities to help meet your course objectives. Course guides direct students to specific resources. Some topics for graduate students include conducting literature reviews, introduction to systematic reviews, citation management software, open educational resources, and measuring scholarly impact. Video tutorials may also be available.

Research Consultations <https://guides.lib.uiowa.edu/kelly-hangauer>

Individual appointments are available for faculty, students, and staff. Currently available through Zoom.

EndNote <https://its.uiowa.edu/endnote>

EndNote is our locally supported citation management software. EN Desktop is available for free to UI faculty, staff, and graduate students. EN Basic is available for free to undergraduates.

Interlibrary Loan/Document Delivery <http://www.lib.uiowa.edu/services/illdd/>

Get an electronic copy of an article or chapter by completing the ILL form. You can also initiate an interlibrary loan request via UBorrow, a service that connects you to resources from all Big Ten Libraries.

Office Delivery or Request Hold at Service Desk

Free office delivery of UI Libraries' materials is available. Materials should be delivered within 5 business days. Materials can also be held for you at the Main Library Service Desk (a faster option). To view request options, log into InfoHawk+, select "Find in Library," and click on "Request."

Course Reserve <http://www.lib.uiowa.edu/reserve/>

To place materials on Course Reserve, use the form on that page. See instructions for linking to library resources in ICON. For questions, email lib-res@uiowa.edu or call (319) 335-5944.

Purchases <http://www.lib.uiowa.edu/forms/recommend/>

Library purchase requests are welcome.

Scholarly Impact <https://www.lib.uiowa.edu/scholarly-impact/>

Library department dedicated to assisting faculty and students with author's publishing rights, measuring scholarly impact, copyright, open access (OA), and data management.
