Field Experience Requirements

All ESL students must complete EDTL:4418 ESL Practicum I. Most teacher candidates for initial licensure complete one-half of their student teaching semester in an ESL placement.

Grade-levels of ESL practicum and student teaching placements must meet state standards for teacher preparation or adding an endorsement, and may affect eligibility for other endorsements. Students should consult with the ESL adviser and licensure staff about their goals for other endorsements before applying for a practicum placement.

Typical placements of ESL students vary, depending on their TEP area, or current teaching licensure:

- Student in Elementary Education TEP: ESL practicum in secondary-level setting (grades 7-12); ESL student teaching in elementary setting.
- Student in Foreign Language Education TEP: Elementary-level field experience required, either ESL practicum or ESL student teaching; One-half student teaching semester in ESL, and one-half in Foreign Language Education.
- Student in grades 5-12 TEP (English Education, Mathematics Education, Science Education, Social Studies Education): ESL practicum in elementary setting; ESL student teaching in secondary-level setting (grades 7-12).
- Student in grades K-12 TEP (including Art Education, Music Education): ESL practicum in elementary setting or secondary-level setting (grades 7-12). No ESL student teaching.
- Teacher licensed for K-6: ESL practicum in high school setting. No ESL student teaching.
- Teacher licensed for 5-12: ESL practicum in elementary setting. No ESL student teaching.
